Dear Lee,

Thank you for keeping me on your mailing list - I do appreciate keeping up with Mass Art news.

In the last issue I noticed there was no yearbook from 1953. So I dug mine up and copied it. A bit awkward in its present form; it had been back-to-back, with individual photos pasted on the pages. As I remember it, the first page had both Mr. Philbrick and Mr Gavin, the latter of whom fell off over the years. Al Perry silkscreened the cover - green print on beige stock.

Amazing the book has survived my 20 moves in seven states and six children along the way!

I'm a Producer at Boeing in Seattle. If you need a Western contact, I'll be happy to be one.

Sincerely,

Elena Shemeta
